SOP – Member Payments

ARTICLE I. PURPOSE

- A. To provide a fee schedule of payments associated with membership in the Club.

ARTICLE II. OPERATING PROCEDURE

- A. Initiation Fee, One-time access fees, and monthly dues are all plus tax.
1. Initiation Fee. After an applicant is accepted for membership in the Club, they shall be deemed a member upon payment of an initial deposit per Table 1-1. The fee will allow the member privileges to use the Cessna C-172 after a check out by a club CFI. At the discretion of the Board, the initiation fee may be paid in monthly equal payments a period not to exceed one year.

Initiation Fee	$1200

5. Block Time. Block time is a reserve into which members will be able to deposit funds. Initially $1000, and thereafter in increments of $500. This block time reserve can then be used to pay for any airtime on any of the Aero Fliers planes at a 10% discount.
6. Fuel Surcharge. During times of rapidly rising cost or increasing price volatility of aviation fuel the Board may elect to assess a fuel charge until such time the new cost of fuel can be incorporated into the hourly usage fee. The fuel surcharge will be based on a base price and an hourly consumption per Table 5-1.

Aircraft	Gallons Per Hour
Skyhawk (C-172)	8
Skylane (C-182)	12
Debonair (BE-33)	15

Table 5-1

7. Assessments. The Club is operated on a non-profit, expense-sharing basis. The Board shall establish and revise as necessary monthly dues and hourly flying rates to cover the maintenance expenses, equipment reserves, aircraft replacement, and operating costs, including fuel for each aircraft. The Board may also levy special assessments not to exceed $50.00 per month, to meet current expenses. New additional assessments of over $50.00 per month shall require approval by a majority vote of the members present at a membership meeting.
8. Clean-up Assessment. The hangar and aircraft are cleaned, washed and waxed twice a year (spring and fall). It is the Active Member’s responsibility to attend the clean-up events. Active Members not attending will be assessed $35 per occurrence unless a valid excuse is provided to the Treasurer 7 days prior to the clean-up event.
